Catalyst Award

This industry-wide award recognizes a senior-level executive and champion who has consistently demonstrated a commitment to advancing women in commercial real estate, serving as a catalyst for change in their company and throughout the industry.

Evaluation Criteria

- The nominee must be a senior-level person, as indicated by a C-Suite title or a VP title.
- The nominee does not have to be a member of CREW Vancouver. This is an industry-wide award to recognize an industry leader; therefore, anyone is eligible.
- The nominee creates opportunities for others and furthers the advancement of women for leadership positions in management such as through direct mentorship, sponsorship, and/or advocacy.
- The nominee has created a culture within their company that is inclusive, equitable and manages a diverse team of employees at all levels.
- The nominee is known for superior execution and results, both individually and in conjunction with company peers. The nominee is trusted and respected by employees, partners and competitors.
- The nominee must have a demonstrated commitment to diversity and inclusion within their company and throughout the industry, and developing talent, through support and involvement in CREW Vancouver and/or other organizations (community-based, business or non-profits).
- The nominee is known to be a “big thinker” and has an insatiable curiosity about the world and the industry. Knowledge and experience are used to ‘connect the dots’ and get to the heart of the matter.
- The nominee reaches beyond current responsibilities to create something bigger and better to make it happen.
- The nomination application must be accompanied by a minimum of two (2) letters of support. While we encourage active CREW members to write these letters, the letters may come from any industry source.
- The recipient of this award must make reasonable efforts to be available to receive the award when presented at the annual event. If the selected nominee is unavailable, a second choice may be considered.

Nomination Questionnaire

Please note there is a 250-word maximum for each answer.

Keeping in mind the description for the award as listed above, what distinguishes this nominee as a leader?

---

Tell us how the nominee has been a champion in advocating for women in commercial real estate.

Suggestion: Does the nominee participate in professional mentoring programs specifically for women? Has the nominee advocated for women within their organization? Does the nominee establish a positive working environment where women are thriving?

Tell us how the nominee has increased or advocated for inclusivity, equity, and diversity within the nominee's organization and or the community at large.

---

Tell us about the nominee's key achievements and/or accomplishments within their organization that have driven success for the company.

Optional: The recipient of the Catalyst Award is an exceptional individual in the commercial real estate industry who is considered a trailblazer that pushes the nominee's company and industry to the highest levels. Please add any additional information that you would like the selection committee to consider.

Woman of Influence Award

This award recognizes an experienced CREW Vancouver member who has distinguished themselves through leadership qualities, achievements and commitments to their career, industry, and community at large.

Evaluation Criteria

- The nominee has shown excellence in their industry, through leadership and achievements.
- The nominee demonstrates a high and quantifiable contribution to their company, industry and community.
- The nominee has made meaningful contributions that are in support of CREW Vancouver's mission of supporting professional women to become leaders in commercial real estate, bringing them together in a dynamic and global business network.
- The nominee has consistently supported other CREW Vancouver members in their careers; by serving as a mentor, coach, or sponsor, identifying and notifying CREW Vancouver members of career advancement opportunities and/or uses their connections and knowledge to assist qualified members in pursuing these opportunities.
- The nominee is actively involved within the professional community and/or community at large.
- The pronoun of the award may be adjusted as per the recipient's preferred pronoun.
- The nominee must be a CREW Vancouver member. Can be nominated by any industry professional or self-nominated.
- The recipient of this award must make reasonable efforts to be available to receive the award when presented at the annual event. If the selected nominee is unavailable, a second choice may be considered.
- Letters of support are encouraged for the nomination, but not mandatory. While we encourage active CREW members to write these letters, it is not mandatory. The letters may come from any industry source.
